MORE RACE HATE ATTACKS AGAINST WHITES

HOMELESS Louie Wade, 53, was murdered in a race-hate attack by a gang of racist Blacks, or possibly Asians in Newham, E. London. They were heard to yell racial abuse before attacking and killing him by stabbing him to death.

As usual with a race-hate killing against a Briton, there has been no media outcry and no arrests.

In nearby Waltham-stow, two brothers have been stabbed to death in what is also thought to be a racially motivated attack. The brothers, Peter and Brian Harvey were celebrating Brian's 31st birthday when both were fatally stabbed by an Asian.

Police did, at least, manage to get the racist killers of James McParland of Burnley. Sajid Hussain and Omar Beg have been remanded on murder charges relating to McParland's murder in a back street near Duke's Bar in April.

Also in Burnley at around the same time, Shiraz Khan was convicted of assault occasioning actual bodily harm upon Paul Greenwood. Paul was knocked out cold for 16 hours in the unprovoked attack which resulted him in being off work for 6 months.

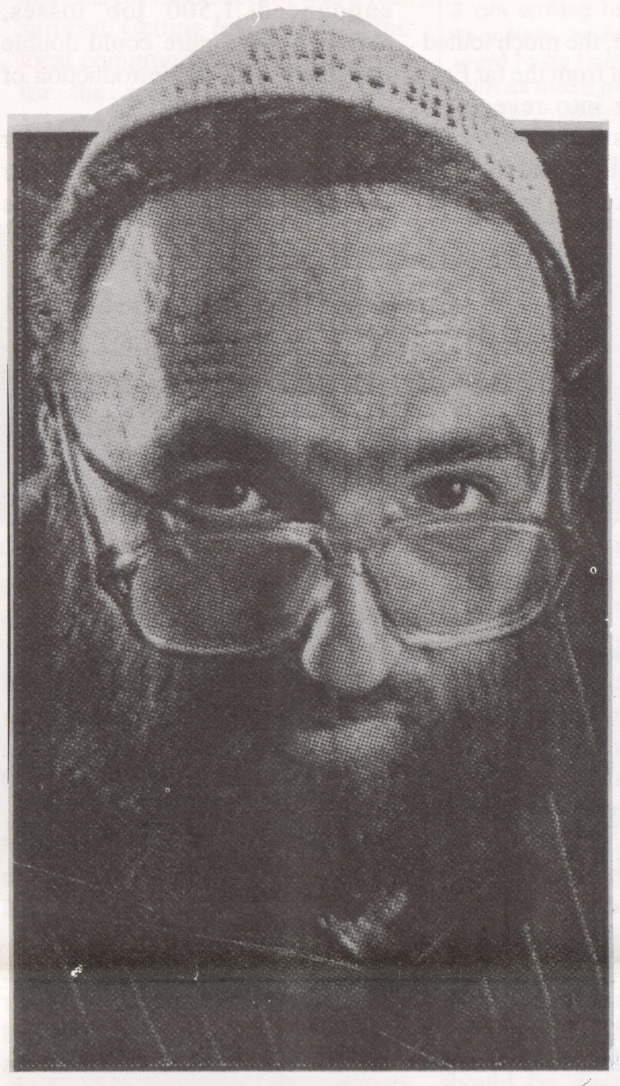

Murdered for being White: Louie Wade

Not long afterwards in Oldham, the familiar pattern of attack was also apparent when a 20-year-old man was attacked by a gang of five race-hate Asians and savagely beaten. The 20-year-old, has not been named, his attackers have not been caught.

BRITISH TO BE 'LEGITIMATE TARGETS' IN ISLAMIC WAR OF TERROR AGAINST AMERICA

Prime Minister Tony Blair has set Britons on the mainland of the UK up for attack by backing Clinton's strike on Afghanistan and Sudan. In a shock admission by a spokesman for the militant Islamic group al-Muhajiroun, Amjan Choudary — a solicitor practising for an East London law firm — speaking of other Islamic militants said: "Britons living on the mainland UK would be 'legitimate targets' for retaliation."

The admission, which came on Radio 4's Today programme (Aug 25) and focused on reaction to the American strikes, has been totally ignored by the rest of the media.

The obvious problem for the establishment is that having made an immigration policy decision to admit vast numbers of foreign migrants, including Muslims, to Britain; the country is now hostage to foreign quarrels, whether they be between various migrant groups such as Pakistanis and Indians over the disputed territory of Kashmir, or whether Britain sides against a foreign country which has thousands of its nationals already here in the UK.

In the case of Muslim countries like Afghanistan and Sudan, Muslims (now reckoned to be 2 million strong in the UK) who are not nationals of those countries could still take their side in any dispute since extremists could portray it as a dispute against Islam itself.

On the Today programme, al-Muhajiroun leader Omar Bakri Mohamed backed Choudary's analysis.

There are three matters arising from Blair's decision. The first is that American intelligence could have been wrong and the medical debris in the wreckage of the Sudanese medicine factory makes this increasingly likely. Second, Blair's poodle-like support for Clinton is a humiliation for Britain. Third, Blair's siding with the dubious American action has put Britons in the firing line.

British Nationalist UPWARDS AND ONWARDS!

Regular readers of British Nationalist will have noticed a radical change to BN as of this issue.

It is not a change made for change's sake. The BNP has a serious political objective, and must win more popular support. To do that, BN must become a more popular paper.

It is not enough to say the right things, BN must also look more like a popular paper.

It is well known that to start to overcome the mass media stranglehold on political opinion, the BNP has to build its own media which are, as yet, still small. BN is one such organ.

At the same time, the party has to get the 'pitch' of BN right, not having the luxury of having two or more papers. BN has to appeal to as many people as possible but without sliding down to the lowest common denominator.

So while BN will employ a new popular look, the quality of reporting will be maintained at about a mid-range level.

And BN is increasing in size as from this issue to ten pages, so as to give adequate space to party merchandising and the promotion of the party's leaflets — something previously lacking. By shifting nearly all advertising to two complete pages, BN can also devote more coverage to party news and events. The extra two pages isn't all advertising!

At the same time, BN has gone up in price by 10p to 60p. It's the first price rise for nearly 2½ years and still represents good value for money. Where else, after all, can you read about what is really happening in Britain and which the controlled press doesn't want you to know about?

Even now, there are more thoughts in the pipeline regarding BN's development including its size, the use of newsprint and frequency, although these things are not expected to change for a while yet.

What it amounts to is ambition. There is a huge gap opening up in British politics and the BNP is determined to do its utmost to fill it!

MASSIVE JOB LOSSES!

Last month saw the result of relying on the free market as the financial crisis in Asia began to impact here at home.

As long ago as last year it was obvious that currency devaluations in Asia would mean yet cheaper imports into Britain throwing British workers out of work and this was predicted by BN.

Now in addition, the much touted inward investment from the far East looks like going into reverse as parent companies seek to firm up their liquidity positions and shore up their home markets. That means selling up here in Britain and going back home. At the same time, thousands of British workers are to be thrown on the dole. This trend will continue since poor loans by Japanese banks mean they need a £60 billion bail out. In the meantime, they're calling in their loans.

After Mitsubishi announced the closure of its Haddington plant in Scotland, Siemens has said that its semiconductor plant on North Tyneside is to close after being open only one year. 1,100 jobs are to go immediately and that doesn't count another 2,000 jobs in firms supplying the plant.

BOC, the industrial gases group, said that it would be shedding 500 workers while Royal Ordinance is cutting 475 jobs.

Molins, the cigarette machinery maker is closing its Peterborough plant with the loss of 360 jobs and car manufacturer Rover has also announced 1,500 job losses, although this figure could double and that's with the introduction of a four day week!

Korean firm Halla's Merthyr Tydfil excavator plant, another investment 'success story' is reducing its 70 workers to just 30 (the firm had once thought to employ 300!).

MFI are also axing 1,500 jobs and designer label Pringle are closing two factories and scaling down operations at others. The cost? 720 jobs.

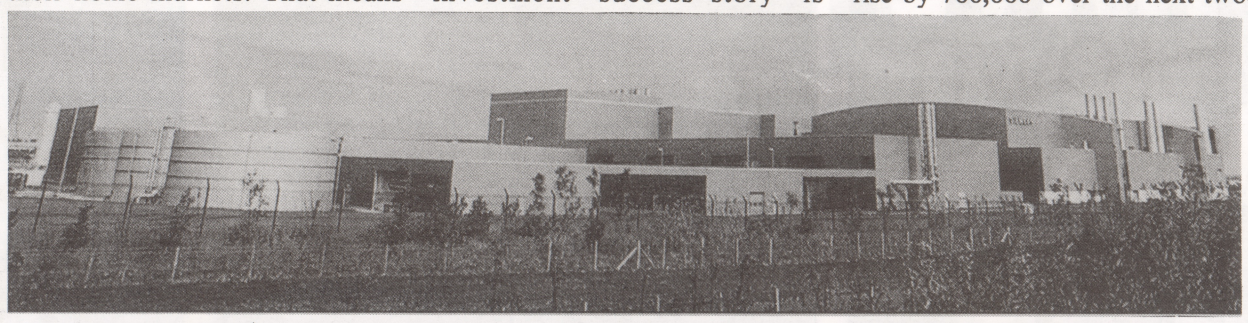

In July, manufacturing shrank at its fastest rate for 6 years. And the number of companies going bust rose by a fifth in June.

The free trade mantra has failed. The Tories followed by their disciples in 'New' Labour accepted the Global economy with all its implications.

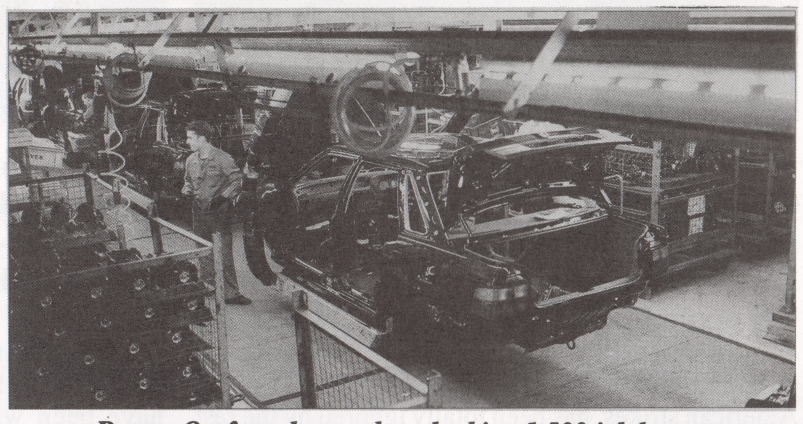

None of the arguments about a strong pound really cut much ice. Past industrial strength and success has always been built on a strong currency.

But crucially, these successful nations, including Britain one-hundred years ago, had effective monopolies in their home market so making economies of scale and increasing efficiency before exporting their products abroad.

With the recession in manufacturing to be official by Christmas, unemployment is set to rise by 700,000 over the next two years and inflation will continue to rise. Piling on the agony, interest rates will also rise further before staying artificially high so that Chancellor Gordon Brown can converge the British economy with that of Europe in preparation for the coming European Empire.

Closing with 1,100 high-tech job losses: The Siemens semiconductor plant on North Tyneside

Rover: On four day week and taking 1,500 job losses

STATISTICAL FAKERY

After condemning 32 Tory changes in counting the unemployed, Labour have got into the act themselves. The pre-1979 method unemployment count under-counts unemployment today by 1 million. Hence the 'success' in driving down the claimant count has never been matched with corresponding savings since people driven onto 'the sick' or onto 'schemes' are still getting their giro one way or the other!

Indeed, the official unemployment figure is 4.8%. But how does that square with another figure — 20% of households of working age have no one in work!

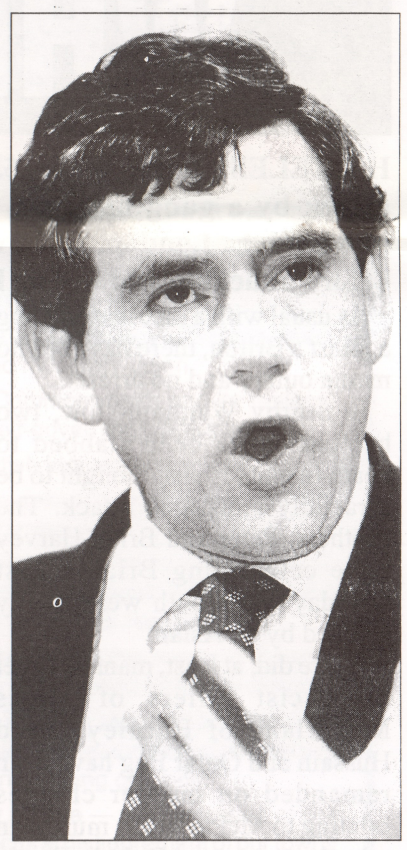

So it is that one in four of the hidden jobless are not counted because their husband/wife is working and men aged over 50 are not shown in the figures either in one of the Tories' more cynical figure tricks.

What can people made redundant do to get work? The Tories said: "Get on your bike"; 'Tory' Blair says "Get 'em off" referring to his belief that steel men make good strippers, as in the film The Full Monty; The Lib-Dems haven't got a clue.

The British National Party is quite clear about the problem of unemployment caused by cheap foreign imports, and that is to ban them either by erecting tarrif walls or by resorting to the red tape of Japan. Japan is the world's second strongest economy.

Then government in conjunction with industry needs to identify market needs: VCR's, TV's, motor cycles, cars, cameras, washing machines etc. and create or expand industries to make them.

It means well paid jobs for all. It's called economic nationalism. It's the policy of the BNP.

LOW WAGES: IMMIGRATION MAKES IT WORSE

The Nature of Nationalism

We see ourselves as integral with a unitary world around us, which evolves according to natural law. In the simplest words:

There is only one reality, which we call Nature: not the "my reality" and "your reality" of the subjectivists and not the separate spiritual and physical realms of the supernaturalists. We are a part of Nature and subject to Nature's laws. Within the scope of these laws we are able to determine our own destiny. If we err in our efforts there is no one to protect us from the consequences of our folly or our weakness. In other words, we ourselves are responsible for everything over which we have the power of choice: in particular, for the state of our environment and for the destiny of our race and of our society.

We need to regenerate our society. It means neighbourhoods, schools, work groups, and universities in which there is a feeling of family and belonging, of a shared heritage and a common destiny. It means a sense of rootedness, which in turn engenders a sense of responsibility and energises a moral compass, so that people once again know instinctively what is wholesome and natural and what is degenerate and alien. It means spiritual feeling coming from the soul, unencumbered by superstition or dogma, soaring free and reaching far above today's shallowness and confusion.

It means a society in which the full talents of the British are unleashed once more for the common good. To build and create. That's the nature of Nationalism.

IRA KILL MORE PEOPLE AT ONE TIME THAN EVER BEFORE

The saddest thing about the Omagh bombing is that seemingly, British politicians have learnt nothing from 30 years of domestic terrorism. If they had, this evil episode could have been avoided.

Two babies, five children and fifteen women were among 28 killed by the IRA in Omagh after being deliberately walked towards the bomb. BN makes no distinction between the Provisional IRA and the Real IRA. The IRA has always been happy to entertain 'talks' when it suited them — when concessions were being made by the government, and equally happy to go back to violence when it suited them, as witness the Canary Wharf bombing. Periodically, the IRA splits between 'war' and 'talk' factions. Today's Real IRA are to the Provisional IRA what the Provisionals were themselves to the Officials many years ago.

The result is that concessions are made — because everyone wants peace — and then the long war goes on just as before. Currently, some 200 terrorists are being given early release. How many of these will go straight back to war?

The BNP has been against the 'peace process' from the very start. Not because the party wouldn't like to see peace, but because it isn't remotely likely. At root is an irreconcilable problem. It is a problem of land and sovereignty. One side or the other has to be disappointed. The BNP, not unnaturally, takes the side of the pro-British unionists (Catholic as well as Protestant) against the republicans.

'Tory' Blair says he hopes it will be the last atrocity. Fine words are not enough. The people of Ulster have had enough fine words. They now require action.

The BNP's policy on Northern Ireland has been consistent throughout. It is: The crushing of the IRA, the termination of the Anglo-Irish agreement and firm support for the loyalist majority in Ulster.

What Ulster people are actually getting is sell-out and surrender — with the blood that they have shed counting for nothing.

BNP IN LONDONDERRY

Following on from the visit by the BNP's Colin Smith to Drumcree and reported in last month's BN, another member of the party's instant response group travelled to Northern Ireland for the Apprentice Boys' Parade...

As this was my first visit to the province, I was a little apprehensive but was soon made to feel welcome by the editor of True Brit, [The BNP's Ulster paper — Ed] I was introduced to other members of the branch and then we set off for the town of Kilkeel, with a consignment of Spearhead magazine I had brought over with me.

Kilkeel was alive with music and bunting, the local pipe and drum bands were parading through the town, preparing for the next day's big event in Londonderry. We sold Spearhead to the crowds lining the streets with great success, and a special mention must be given to local activist Mervyn, who appears to know everybody in town. He personally sold an incredible 80 copies in an hour and a half.

The next day we travelled with a group of Apprentice Boys from the Belfast area, for the long ride to Londonderry. The driver of our coach had strict instructions from the RUC on the route he was to take, which meant we had to do a detour around two nationalist villages, so not to upset their sensitivities or lose any windows on our coach.

Arriving in Londonderry was an experience I shall always remember. Everywhere bands were playing up-lifting marching music and Apprentice Boys were forming up. The atmosphere was vibrant with loyalty and enthusiasm. It was very encouraging to see healthy teenage girls, both as standard bearers and band members, proudly marching along side young men. Union and Ulster flags were to be seen everywhere. I have to say that I was taken back by this show of patriotism. Something I have never personally witnessed on the streets of England.

We followed the marching Apprentice Boys through the streets of Londonderry, selling dozens of Spearheads to the cheering crowds, finally ending up in the Apprentice Boys' Memorial Hall, located in the old walled city, close to the ramparts.

It must be stated at this point that unlike previous years, there have been restrictions imposed on this year's parade. Alastair Simpson goyernor of the Apprentice Boys has capitulated to the Parades Commission and bowed down to their demands. As the parade reached the contentious stretch of the ramparts overlooking the Bogside the drums fell silent. Later just a token 13 marchers, the number of the original Apprentice Boys who saved the city 310 years ago, laid a wreath at the cenotaph.

Intriguingly the ex-governor of Hong Kong, Chris Patten was also there, watching the proceedings.

The next morning I was given a fascinating tour of Belfast by the editor of True Brit. Whole areas are segregated by 'Peace walls', and Union flags and Irish tricolours denote the different allegiances. RUC stations looked like futuristic armed fortresses. It was heartbreaking to think that this is a British city divided by hate, an image I shall never forget.

The hospitality was excellent and the Apprentice Boys parade an experience not to be missed.

THE TED BUDDEN COLUMN

Some years ago, the Brighton Evening Argus published a letter from an address in Worthing that criticised Israeli treatment of the Palestinians. Two days later, the same paper published a letter from a representative of the Jewish Board of Deputies denouncing the letter as a fake. No such person lived at that address he declared.

Perhaps. It seems that everyone who criticises organised Jewry is checked up on and marked down for future persecution. Small wonder that politicians in the United States live in terror of the Jewish lobby and tamely vote for massive subsidies for Israel. As many American politicians have discovered to their cost, to oppose Jewish interests results in B'nai Brith, the so-called Jewish Anti-Defamation League, mounting massive and well-financed campaigns against them when they seek re-election.

Now it seems that, having tamed America and Western Europe, organised Jewry has turned its attention to Australia.

For it is there that Pauline Hanson, the redoubtable lady who founded the One Nation Party, has had the guts to stand up to the political hacks and face them down. The Party has been gathering unprecedented support for its anti-immigration policy and for its opposition to the ludicrous proposals for 'Aboriginal rights' — Over 30% in Pauline Hanson's native Queensland and around 15% nationwide. This has scared the living daylights out of the old political parties who, along with the media, have sought to ridicule the former fish and chip shop proprietor as a political novice with only one policy.

But, as in Britain, when the pressure against immigration piles up, the Israeli cavalry comes galloping to the rescue. A special edition of the Australia/Israel Review published the names of 2,000 members of the One Nation Party said to have been leaked to it by "a disaffected party member."

The publishing of 'lists' of 'enemies' has the authentic smack of totalitarianism.

Now I do not think that even in Australia, where degenerate politicians practise a policy of genocide through miscegenation, it is a crime to be a member of the One Nation Party. What we see here is a naked attempt to intimidate prospective members and supporters of that party.

Ah, how well we remember those poor Jews who came to our lands as the wretched victims of persecution. How our Anglo-Saxon hearts bled for them. But see them now as they strut like conquerors. See them now, in all their naked arrogance, as they persecute their hapless hosts.

And people wonder why there is anti-Semitism!

THE BNP AND RACE

The BNP is best known for its policy on race and immigration. The BNP opposes immigration into the UK from whatever its source. For forty years this immigration has primarily been coloured. But it is not an issue of colour since the party is equally opposed to immigration from Albania and Eastern Europe.

The BNP is not a 'race supremacist' party. The BNP does not claim that any one race is superior to any other, simply that they are different. The party merely wishes to preserve those differences which make up the rich tapestry of human kind.

Neither has the BNP any connection with 'race hate'. Indeed it is the multi-racialists who are the haters since it is they who are determined to destroy all cultures and all races to achieve a multi-racial mish-mash.

To protect and preserve the racial and cultural integrity of the British people — and of others too, the party believes in separation.

Only in a Black society will Black kids find true Black role models. Only in a Muslim society will Muslims find their religion free from Western influence. All peoples need a homeland. The British too need a homeland.

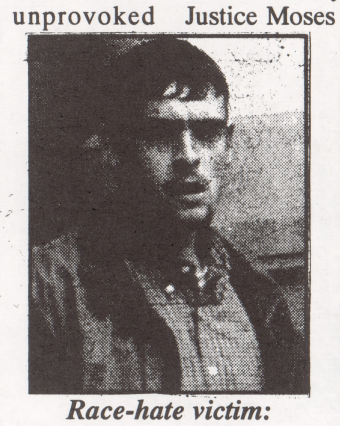

Nor are the BNP 'racist'. Indeed, the BNP are resisting the racist colonisation of Britain in which the native people of Britain are having their culture suppressed, their land colonised and are being discriminated against on racial grounds.

To sum up, the BNP is fighting for the very right to exist of not just the British, but of all peoples.

MORE RACE-HATE ATTACKS AGAINST WHITES

Three race-hate Asians were found guilty at Preston Crown Court at the end of May for the unprovoked racially motivated stabbing of 23-year-old Brendan Thompson.

The court heard that the victim was pulled from his van, repeatedly struck on the head before being stabbed three times. Thompson had to be taken to hospital with the knife still in his back where surgery was required to remove the knife. Passing sentence on the unnamed 17-year-old assailant, Mr. Justice Moses told the youth he was lucky not to be facing a murder charge: "Had the victim not been so well attended and fit, he would have died." Moses then gave the would-be killer a paltry 3½ years and his two accomplices received a two-year supervision order and 120 hours community service.

Race-hate victim: Peter Bruce

● Racist thug Amjid Mohammed has been jailed for five years for battering a teenager senseless because he was white.

Mohammed, 21, selected Peter Bruce for the attack and jumped out of his car yelling "White Boy" before bludgeoning him four times about the head, then kicking him repeatedly in the stomach as he lay helpless on the floor. Rushed to the hospital where he needed 23 stitches, Peter can remember nothing of the attack.

Brave Michelle, Peter's sister, witnessed the attack and pushed Mohammed away. Later, she was able to identify him at an identity parade.

● In Tipton, W. Midlands, five sales executives appeared before West Bromwich magistrates accused of attempting to murder 34-year-old Michael Rollinson in June.

He was attacked by the five for no apparent reason. A passing fire engine stopped to help the man and stop the attack. As one witness described it: "They were taking it in turns jumping on the man's head whilst the victim lay in a pool of blood, unconscious." Rollinson is still on a life-support machine.

Jasvir Singh Randhawa, Kulwant Singh Randhawa, Balbir Singh Bagri, Sateesh Rai Gangar and Kartar Singh Sehmi have been bailed.

The Tipton attack is the latest in a long line of racially motivated crime in that area. Racial tension has been high ever since a white youth was attacked by a gang of Asians and had part of his ear bitten off. This resulted in a near riot when riot police were called in to stop a 200-strong white crowd armed with baseball bats and petrol bombs from going into the Asian part of Tipton.

Recently a middle-aged man was attacked by a drug-crazed Rasta who attacked him with a stanley knife, slashing his throat, face and forehead. Amazingly, he survived and the attacker is awaiting trial for attempted murder.

In Oldham, the Chief Superintendant there has said that 3 out of every four victims are white. He said: "It is almost invariably a gang activity, often involving weapons, usually against a white victim on their own. Anyone seems to be a target if they are white and they are vulnerable. We have even had evidence of mothers pushing prams coming under attack. There is evidence that they [the Asians] are trying to create exclusive areas for themselves. We have experience of comments such as 'Whites keep out'"

The latest attack in Tipton, on Michael Rollinson, is the third attempted murder in as many months. And not a peep from the establishment!

Just when are these wicked race-hate attacks going to stop? When will white people be able to walk the streets in safety without the fear of being beaten or even murdered because of the colour of their skin?

The politicians, it seems, do not want to know. If the victim isn't Black or Asian and the perpetrator isn't White, such crimes go down the establishment's memory hole.

The BNP on the other hand, condemns all race attacks including those of Blacks. That's not something you'll be reading about in the controlled media though. Like, for instance, the murder of Trevor Coveley on the Isle of Dogs by an Asian gang. His murder, like that of whites, was also given the silent treatment. The killing, you see, didn't fit the media stereotype... So for the liberal luvvies it didn't happen! His name like those of white victims of race murder will not be forgotten: Richard Everett, Catherine Ayling, Philip Lawrence, Christopher Farrell, Danny Westmacott, Paul Carter, Andrew Steventon, Mark Sharp, Terry May, Albert Marriner, Michael Dooher, Gary Wilmer, Philip Gosling and so many others forgotten by the race relations industry. Why will no one speak up for the white victims of racial violence? Are white victims of no account? According to the establishment it seems so. Just so many sacrificial lambs upon the evil bloody altar of multi-racialism.

White youth fight back

In July's BN, white women were featured fighting back against the criminals who molest them. This month, it's the turn of white youth. BN sees reports all the time about crime and the disproportionate non-white element that perpetrates that crime, particularly rape and robbery. Britain's anti-free speech laws make it a criminal offence to mention non-whites in all but the most flattering of terms, and so frank comment about these crimes is not possible.

But every now and again, there is some good news...

When Ayn Strecker an interior designer was mugged in a Fulham, W. London street and robbed of her cartier watch, two little nine-year-old boys George Ball and John McMahon ran to her aid and then ran after her six-foot athletically built attacker.

George who goes to Fulham Primary said: "The lady got up and shouted for help, and we ran after him. We didn't think about it, but I was a bit frightened when we caught up and grabbed him. He kept shouting 'Get off me', but I didn't until he dropped the watch."

John who attends Norman Park Primary said: "When we were chasing him, I went one way and George went the other and we cornered him. I grabbed his leg and George grabbed his shirt."

Mrs. Strecker described the boys as her guardian angels. "They were absolutely heroic, brave and wonderful.

I was walking home in daylight when suddenly this man jumped on me from nowhere. He crashed me to the ground, pinned me down and ripped by watch off quite brutally.

THE CROOKS IN CHARGE

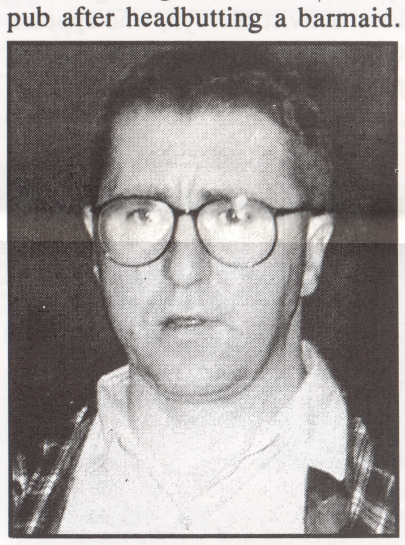

With Tory fortunes at rock bottom, party workers at Central Office have been laid off in droves. At the same time, with funds tight through a disintegrating party structure, Tory bosses have employed a professional fund raising team.

Labour councillor, Jack Riley has been jailed for 28 days after admitting three counts of falsifying expenses. Riley is one of at least a dozen Labour crooks who are under investigation in the corruption scandal affecting Doncaster council.

In Birmingham, councillors Bradley and Brooks have alleged corruption within the ruling Labour council. The pair, who have handed over details, are now demanding an inquiry by national party cheifs.

The Scottish National Party have also been having problems recently. Two leading SNP councillors Brian Topping and Ian Tait have been charged with fiddling their expenses. Both represent wards in Fraserburgh, Aberdeenshire.

SNP thug and candidate for the coming Scottish parliament, William Craig was barred from a pub after headbutting a barmaid.

TO THE POINT

Or, We Couldn't Put It Better Ourselves – Items in the establishment press showing opinion moving our way.

"Britain cannot sustain such huge burdens in public spending for so long and it will have a serious impact on race relations...

Many of us believe that this country is being taken advantage of, and that the growing financial burden is costing too much money which would be better spent on health and education services."

Mohammed Khokhar, Pakistan Welfare Association.

(Kenneth) Clarke attacks his opponents for resorting to 'narrow nationalism' — a common Euro-fanatics' phrase. The adjective is always appended...

We should make sure that nationalism is not belittled. There is nothing wrong with nationalism. It is simply another term for patriotism — regard for and loyalty to one's country and (adds the dictionary) a readiness to work for the common good.

Andrew Alexander, Daily Mail.

Just what is this country coming to when any Tom, Dick or Harry can come and take over and the politicians let them do it. We have shut old people's homes and now we are opening the homes for these people who come into the country. How dare politicians do this while our own people look on and have no homes to go to. England is a small island and cannot go on taking people. I will never believe in another politician again because they do not put our people first.

Mrs. Lowe, letters, Basildon Evening Echo.

Madelaine Albright's description of the American missile strikes on two Islamic countries as 'The first blow in the war of the Future' must make us pause, for international terrorism has potential access to weapons of mass destruction. Before we blunder blindly down the road to Armageddon, we must face two hard facts:

Both Bill Clinton and Tony Blair are subservient to a myopic but influential Zionist lobby;

The Western democracies have foolishly allowed the mass settlement of Muslim migrants and members of other ethnic groups who communities are potential seedbeds of guerilla enlistment while their foreign attachments persist.

Because of the paralysis of contemporary political discourse, however, one dare not mention these crucial facts, lest one be accused, in the first instance, of 'anti-Semitism', or 'racism' in the second. In addition to the development of technology to defend lawful societies against terrorists, we need also to restore the concept of homogeneous but co-existent nation states, within agreed boundaries, even if this requires, for example, the limitation of Eretz Israel on the one hand and the return of death-defying Muslims to the House of Islam on the other.

I have been fishing and exporting eels to Holland and Germany since 1961, employing a crew of four, paying tax and National Insurance and earning foreign currency for Britain.

Thanks to crazy bureaucracy, I have ended up as a criminal and have been forced to sack my crew - putting four men, including myself, on the dole. In 1971 I was considered 'suitable' for a grant to buy new fishing boats and nets and, in return, I had to work for ten years to pay back the grant by catching as many eels as possible.

This year I was really sick for the first time in my working life. Rather than claim from the DSS, my crew fished for oysters while I was in hospital. The outcome: a fine of £2,000 because the licence was in my name and I was not on the boat.

So if I am sick, my crew members have to sign on the dole. Well they will soon be signing on permanently at a huge cost to the DSS, because I am selling up and going on the dole myself. All I wanted to do was work. The boat is there, the fish are there, the market is there. But so are the mad bureaucrats.

Tony Glover, letters, Daily Mail.

"The present government appears to have no industrial policy and is content to see more and more manufactured goods bought from abroad where wages are lower, without any thought for the future of this country and its industrial base".

Tony Benn MP.

Only fanatics can continue to deny that divorce has harmful effects on children. Children from broken homes in Britain suffer worse health problems, have more accidents, lag at school and gain fewer qualifications. Contrary to the claims of the Left-leaning elite, a significant minority of children are handicapped for life. They are more prone to drinking, smoking an drug abuse as adults. They leave school earlier, earn low incomes and slide into financial hardship. If this were a medical disease, it would prompt demands for a national campaign of eradication. It is time for a radical overhaul of the incentive structure I favour of marriage. Imagine what a difference it would make if married couples jumped to the head of the housing list. Or even better, what if they paid lower rates of tax?

BNP VIDEOS BNP VIDEOS BNP VIDEOS

For the first time, the British National Party is taking advantage of the video revolution to bring it's message into your drawing room!

This short film has been made in support of BNP candidates in the coming local government elections in East London. Some candidates and one ordinary voter are featured in the film talking about the important local issues on which the BNP will be fighting – issues which the Labour, Tory and LibDem parties prefer to ignore.

Also included in the film is the party election broadcast made by BNP leader John Tyndall, which was shown to the whole nation just before the general election of May 1997. If you missed this, now's your chance to see it!

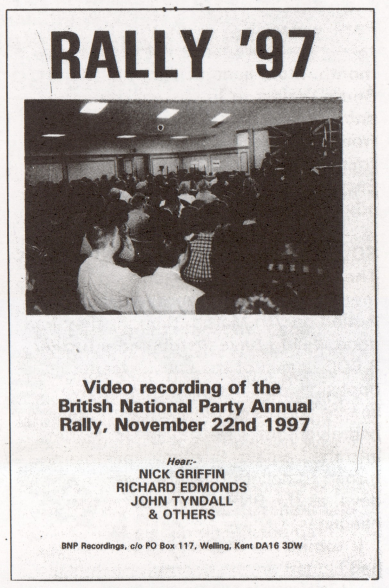

VOTE BNP — ELECTION '98
This outstanding video was put out in three of the party's best seats for May's council elections. The local media and opposition were appalled at this video initiative as they recognised what a powerful propaganda medium it is. Video also includes the entire uncut General Election broadcast. Feedback suggests that the video worked well as a canvassing tool and persuaded otherwise uncommitted voters to vote BNP. Get your copy for just £6.50 post free.

unemployment, urban blight, the EU and immigration are all hot issues. Regular leafleting is the key to increased recruitment. These are first class propaganda weapons. Use them to build the British Resistance!

All these children would be alive today if our spineless politicians had the guts to declare war on the paedophiles

The killers of all these children were either known or convicted paedophiles — like dozens of other child-killers. How many more must die before something is done? Only when we lock away the perverts who prey on our children, removing them from society completely, will our streets and playgrounds be safe again. And for paedophiles who kill their victims, the only just punishment is the rope!

THEME-PARK BRITAIN

How 'politically correct' townies are killing our country

ANOTHER farmhouse lies derelict, either to fall down or to become a yuppy weekend cottage. Yet another family swallowed up in the city, while more and more farms every year are taken over by City speculators, while village schools, pubs and shops become holiday homes. Rural Britain has been systematically neglected and depopulated by a system based on city 'values' and short-term greed. What has this got to do with Field Sports? Everything!

Our masters in Westminster and the media have forgotten that a healthy countryside is the backbone of a nation. Their only concern is to preserve a few pretty bits as a summer theme park and tourist trap. The idea of a rural Britain which stands on its own feet, which has its own industries, traditions and sports actually frightens our urban masters, because it doesn't need them. They need our taxes, but rural Britain doesn't need the parasites in parliament, Whitehall and the TV studios. But people who don't need their 'help' make these power-junkies uneasy. That's why they 'love' the 'under-privileged, multi-racial inner-cities', and it's why they hate the real people of rural Britain.

That's the real reason for their attack on country sports. Animal 'welfare' doesn't come into it. If it did, they'd do something about the scandal of halal and kosher ritual slaughter, whereby hundreds of thousands of animals every year are slowly bled to death without any pre-stunning, in ways which would land any other slaughterman in prison. But the Labour Party and most 'animal welfare' fanatics turn a blind eye to this 'religious' savagery, just as they ignore the huge numbers of lambs taken by foxes and badgers. After all, cuddly foxes are politically correct, whereas native Britons, and our traditions and livelihoods don't count. We only built this country, we only pay the taxes — so we don't count!

As a matter of fact, the masters of urbanised Britain don't give a damn about foxes either. If they did, they wouldn't be so keen to condemn them to slow death by poison, habitat-destruction and gangrene from bullet wounds (where are they going to find 'marksmen' in a country where they've outlawed target shooting?). What they really care about is destroying our identity, our sense of belonging, our nationhood. To hundreds of thousands of Britons, their sense of identity is intricately bound up with hunting or other field sports — that's why they're the latest target.

That's also why weather forecasters don't use temperatures which actually mean something any more. That's why you can't buy pre-packed potatoes by the pound any more. That's why the county regiments have been amalgamated out of existence. That's why our kids come home from school knowing more about 'colonial exploitation' in Africa than about our own history. That's why TV soaps portray homosexual perversion as acceptable, even preferable. That's why our cities (because British people there are targets too) have been filled with hideous tower blocks and with strangers from every part of the globe. That's why our political and economic freedoms are being submerged in a European super-state. That's why they won't leave anything alone.

What we are facing is the organised destruction of our identity and freedoms by an out-of-touch but immensely powerful political and media élite. It can only be stopped, let alone reversed, when large numbers of ordinary Britons unite and organise to resist and reverse the process — when we British organise to take back control of our own country. That's the purpose of the British National Party.

COUNTRYSIDE LEAFLET

Country folk are under attack and the party spells out its policies to regenerate the countryside, provide jobs and maintain the rural way of life.

STOP LABOUR'S ATTACK ON THE WELFARE STATE!

Last year, many people voted Labour to rid the country of the Tories and bring an end to their corruption and the misery they imposed. Many hoped that Labour would reverse the cuts that the Tories had made. Now, millions have been disillusioned as it has become apparent that Labour will simply follow the Tories' heartless policies even more brutally. They are getting away with it in a way that the Tories never could, simply because they are Labour.

Old folk have seen hopes of a fairer pension dashed with yet another Labour 'review'. Instead, they were given a £20 sop over the winter to keep them quiet. The scandal is that, since Thatcher broke the earnings-related link with pensions, pensioners are now down £23 per week. OAPs must wonder whether they really did finish on the winning side in the war, when Germany can treat its old folk so much better.

LABOUR'S BROKEN PROMISES

After breaking their promises to pensioners, Labour put the boot into students hoping for a decent education. Labour says that students must take on crippling debt if they want to go on to university. The Labour politicians who say this have already had their free education!

Showing their contempt for ordinary people even further, Labour are punishing widowed and abandoned single parents by confiscating their benefits. The next on the hit-list are the genuinely sick and disabled on sickness benefit. Labour hope that cutting the pittance of these people will rake in even more money than attacking single mums. Welfare to work, is all very well, but there have to be viable jobs in the workplace!

For many who voted 'New' Labour, the penny is starting to drop. 'New' Labour = Old Tories; Tony Blair is Tory Blair. Labour are the Tory Party in disguise! The Labour party have abandoned ordinary working people. Labour are more interested in 'gays', ethnics and their rich money-bags backers. The British National Party says it's time to stop wasting £millions on over-paid advisory committees stuffed with Labour councillors, on bogus asylum-seekers, and on foreign-aid handouts. The BNP says: stop the cuts and put our own people FIRST!

STOP LABOUR'S ATTACK ON THE WELFARE STATE

Single sided A5 leaflet attacking Labour where it hurts. This is the leaflet that stakes the party's claim to represent blue collar workers from a Labour party which has abandoned them.

STOP THE RACE ATTACKS!

FROM THIS TO THIS and all thanks to multiracialism

A White boy lies in a coma close to death on a life support machine because politicians have forced an unworkable multi-racialism upon us with all the violence that entails.

Little Daniel Moore, aged 12, was attacked by a gang of 20 racist Asians armed with bricks, bottles and lumps of wood. He had been playing football with two friends when the 20 older youths chased the three, screaming: "You pieces of white trash." Poor Daniel couldn't get away and stood no chance as the 20 battered him near to death. It wouldn't be acceptable if whites had attacked an Asian boy and this attack is not acceptable either. While the media took up the story, there was no linking of this attack to others showing a definite trend of attacks against whites. Only four months before this, an eight-year-old in Halifax was racially attacked by three older Asians who beat him, set him on fire and ran off laughing. At the same time in London, 15 white boys playing football, aged 14-16, were attacked by 20 older Asians armed with knives, bottles and axes. More Asians joined in to ensure that the boys could not escape, and horrific injuries were inflicted. There is a near conspiracy of silence in the media about these and other attacks. LAST YEAR NO FEWER THAN FOUR WHITES WERE MURDERED BECAUSE OF THE COLOUR OF THEIR SKIN: Christopher Farrell, Andrew Steventon, Mark Sharp and Danny Westmacott. But the media only talk about the murder of black Stephen Lawrence. Don't white victims count? Is the BNP the only group speaking up for white people and against the violence? Yes! But you'll not be reading that in the controlled media!

The BNP says: stop the racial attacks — ALL OF THEM!

STOP THE BUILDING!

A TIDAL WAVE of development is wrecking hundreds of villages and market towns. A flood of concrete is destroying thousands of acres of prime farmland, beauty spots and the habitats of rare and endangered wildlife.

What is planned around here is only a small part of the big picture. Up to 1,000 square miles of virgin countryside are to be bulldozed to make way for an official target of 4.4 million new homes by the year 2016.

In fact, it's going to be even worse than that! The 4.4 million figure was decided on by the Conservatives before the last general election, but Labour Government planners are now working on a revised figure of 5.5 million new houses. That means that even more of our heritage is going to be destroyed. In the words of Labour planning minister, Richard Caborn: "The green belt is up for grabs."

The worst thing of all is that the resulting destruction of rural communities, wildlife and farmland is totally unnecessary. There are hundreds of thousands of acres of derelict land in and around Britain's cities and big towns. If this land were redeveloped, there would be plenty of new homes, and none of the extra traffic jams and pollution which will be caused by people commuting from new dormitory towns into the cities.

But reclaiming urban wasteland is less profitable than bulldozing our countryside, so the politicians — councillors and MPs alike — get big back-handers from the developers and construction companies in return for allowing them to concrete over fields, woods and villages.

That's why the only way to stop the building is to throw out the old politicians.

If you agree that it's time to take action to preserve Britain's countryside, then you've got to help to build a completely new political force, which is pledged to put the interests of the British people as a whole before those of greedy developers or bought-and-paid-for politicians.

CONSERVATIVE? NOT ANY MORE!

A PARTY that stands for the family. A party that stands up for the victims of crime, and for the effective punishment of criminals. A party that promotes decency and rejects perversion. A party that stands for Britain, and for the silent majority. A party that stands for you. Very probably, that used to be the Conservative Party — but times have changed!

It's true that more and more of what is going wrong in our country today is the fault of the Labour Government, but deciding to vote against Blair & Co. next time isn't enough to turn things around. After all, the present rot started under the last government.

Cutting mortgage interest tax relief, slashing university grants, and the skewing of the social security system to favour single parents over married couples, were all anti-family policies dreamed up by the Tories. Similarly, it was the last Conservative Government which signed the Maastricht Treaty and so condemned Britain to be submerged in a Federal Europe.

The Tories talk about "preserving the British identity," about "family values" and "listening" to ordinary people. But don't be fooled by what they say, look at what they do!

The 'Con' Party

William Hague (pictured chasing the 'ethnic' vote at the Notting Hill carnival) may talk like a 'Euro-sceptic', but he has fixed the lists of approved European Election candidates so as to force local Tory party activists to adopt pro-Federal Europe candidates. The baseball-cap wearing 'traditionalist' may talk about 'family values', but he supported the disgusting Labour attempt to make it legal for grown men to bugger schoolboys. Many of the Conservative MPs who voted for this perverts' charter are themselves homosexuals.

One of Hague's up-and-coming MPs, 'right-wing' bachelor Alan Duncan, has gone even further. When his Rutland constituents found themselves facing a threat to house the convicted paedophile child-killer, Robert Oliver, in a hostel in the village of Wing, they naturally asked for his help in stopping this deadly threat. Yet, instead of taking notice of his constituents' concerns for their children's freedom, innocence and lives, Duncan sided instead with the liberal do-gooders backing the pervert. So much for "listening to Britain"!

With William Hague's continued support, Duncan criticised his own constituents for "intolerance" and attacked British National Party members who picketed the hostel as 'extremists'. Yet can you honestly think of anything more extreme than forcing the parents of a law-abiding village to accept into their midst a sadistic child-rapist and multiple murderer?

OUT OF WORK?

"DO THE FULL MONTY!" says Tony Blair

"GET 'EM OFF!" That's the insulting message sent by Tony Blair to the unemployed and low-waged as his government's policies plunge Britain into yet another unnecessary recession.

Speaking in Sheffield while launching a programme to force the young unemployed into cheap labour rip-offs and pointless 'make-work' schemes, Blair had the barefaced cheek to tell us that the unemployed should follow the example of the redundant steelworkers who 'retrain' as strippers in the film The Full Monty. This, he lectured, was a good example of the sort of flexibility needed to get a job in Britain today!

What a nerve! The Tories closed down whole industries, but even they only said: "Get on yer bike!" Now Labour are closing down what's left and, with no real jobs around, they want us to "Get 'Em Off!"

Blair not only thinks it's funny to see skilled men trying to earn the money to keep their families together by stripping in the gutted shell of their old workplace — he actually thinks it's a good thing!

Remember that when you next meet someone campaigning for the Labour Party — but don't hold your breath, because these champagne socialists only make the effort to mix with us peasants at election times, when they expect us all to put them back into parliament or the council chamber for another few years of high-life and back-handers.

Doesn't it make you sick? And isn't it time you joined the people who are going to do something about it? The British National Party is growing fast all over Britain, and now we're organising around here as well.

Our aim is simple: to build a totally new political movement, which will give the British people the chance to kick out the tired and corrupt Lib/Lab/Con gang — and their job-destroying policies of 'globalisation'. In their place we're going to put a patriotic government — a government which will put Britain and the British people first, and get this country back to work!

Left: Albanian immigrants pour off a freighter into Italy. Once they are there, EU rules make it easy for them to join the flood of immigrants and bogus 'asylum-seekers' pouring into Britain that Britain should continue to take in, house, feed and care for thousands of 'asylum-seekers' at a time when homelessness and hospital waiting lists are rising steadily? YES/NO that Labour and LibDem councils are right to keep putting native-born British people to the back of the housing queue? YES/NO that the Home Secretary is right to give an extra 30,000 'asylum-seekers' the right to stay in Britain just because the authorities haven't been able to investigate their often bogus claims as to why they should be allowed in? YES/NO that it's right to build new houses on Green Belt land in order to make room for 150,000 extra immigrants every year? YES/NO

that it was right or democratic to allow mass immigration to change the face of our country without the politicians ever asking us if we wanted it? YES/NO

'NO' EVERY TIME? That's what we think too. That's why we're building the British National Party. And why you should join our campaign to put the British people first, before immigrants and bogus 'asylum-seekers'.

MUSIC CORNER

The British National Party is currently very interested in promoting White Resistance music formats of every description. This does not mean purely rock and Oi sounds, but also folk and country — an expansion of this type of music especially is needed to achieve a balanced range of musical styles, all of which are growing and are part of the nationalist counter culture.

Thanks. The British National Party wishes to thank English Rose and Avalon for their very generous donations of supplies of their latest CDs, which will raise many hundreds of pounds for the BNP's Euro Election fund.

These will be sold through various BNP units, but readers who are not in touch with a unit, or who would like more information about the wide range of White Resistance CDs now available, can contact the bands direct. Please write to:-

HATE AND STUPIDITY IN AMERICA

FOREIGN NEWS

Three American whites kill a black man by dragging him to death behind their pick-up truck. What does that say about the nature of race relations in the US today?

James Byrd, 49, had his body torn apart. The three that did it: Aryan Brotherhood associates John King, Lawrence Brewer and Shawn Berry are accused of murder. They are no friends of the nationalist movement in America. The whole of America and Britain too (where it also made the news) was united in disgust and loathing for the killers.

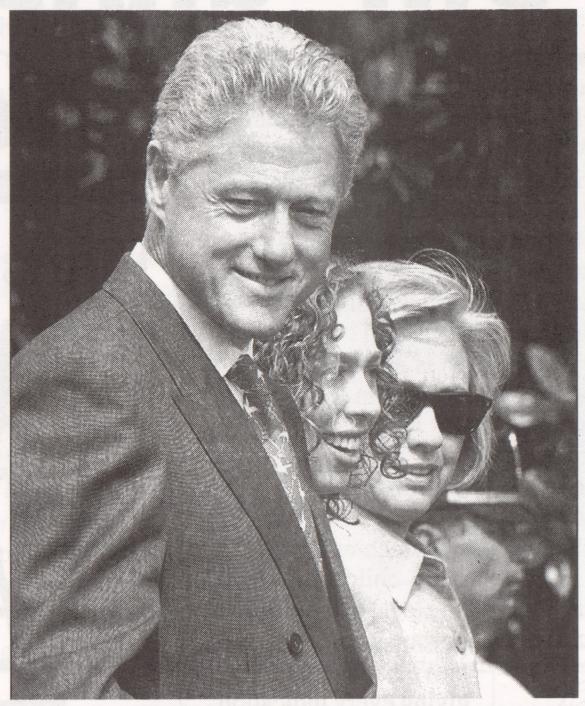

Flinn: Stupid Klown

After this p.r. disaster for nationalism in America, you wouldn't think that it could get any worse. Wrong! Enter the Ku Klux Klan, the white robed misfits who specialise in giving white racial politics a bad name. Darrell Flinn, the 'Imperial Wizard' of the Knights of the White Kamelia decided that the murder town of Jasper, Texas needed a Klan rally.

This move piled on odium to the disgust already felt by Americans for the likes of the Klan. Instead of winning over his fellow Americans, the Klown, Flinn confirmed every negative stereotype.

● Meanwhile, Hispanics currently 11 per cent of the US population, with Blacks on 13 per cent are set to become America's largest minority by 2020 with a projected 22 per cent leaving Blacks on 16 per cent. Hispanics already outnumber Blacks in the under-18 category. The Hispanic birth rate is 24 per 1,000 compared to 18 among Blacks and 12 among whites.

● President Bill Clinton said in Portland State University, Oregon that new immigrants will lead to no majority race in the United States within decades. Discussing the impact of 1 million new legal immigrants per year he praised the "New wave of immigration, larger than any in a century, far more diverse than any in our history." Noting Federal population projections he said: "Within little more than fifty years, there will be no majority race in America."

PRESIDENT CLINTON:
Rejoices that Whites are to be minority

Facing up to racial civil war he said: "But mark my words, unless we handle this well, immigration of this sweep and scope could threaten the bonds of our union."

How long before the folly of American immigration reveals itself in an American Balkans?

PRESCOTT CANES THE CAR

Minister for Transport John Prescott led the assault on the motor car when he unveiled his White paper on Transport. Road tolls, city entry tolls, parking taxes and higher petrol duty are the planned socialist nirvana. Prescott got himself photographed on a tube train in the late morning to show his commitment to the system.

A pity he didn't try it at eight o'clock in the morning when he could have been photographed fighting not simply for a seat, but for a standing position on the very train itself.

Morning after morning, rush hour commuters pack themselves in like sardines, pressed up against each other with no room to move or breathe. If live animals were transported this way, there would be a national outcry.

After the White paper, BN asks "What about the country car owner?" Outside the cities where there isn't a reliable public transport system, changing patterns of work and shopping mean that not having a car simply isn't an option.

Back in the cities, and taking London as an example, what of the tube system? What of safety?

Jams like this drive the pace for a better transport system

Prescott's posing on the tube would be more impressive at 8.00am

Here are some extracts from a recent article in Railway magazine by former misery line guard Peter Brown:

"The truth is that between Morden and Edgware an average journey would include four serious muggings.

When the train pulled into a station, 30-40 heads would appear around the platform. They would spot their prey and then pounce... At the next station, members of the gang would be seen to emerge from different parts of the train. An old lady would get out, frail, shaken and without her handbag...

As we entered Stockwell station we saw the body of a young man lying flat on his face with a knife sticking out of his back. Violence could be seen at Stockwell at any time of the day or night... On Kennington station, the situation was so bad that we train crews were forced to carry large metal objects for our own protection. During another incident at Kennington, I saw an elderly woman lying face down in a pool of blood, while at the other end of the platform, a gang chanted racial abuse. The police seemed helpless..."

BN BRIEFING

IMMIGRATION FILE
South Africa's lions have given on a whole new meaning to zero tolerance as applied to immigration. Last month, lions ate five out of six members of a family attempting to cross the Kruger National Park from Mozambique into South Africa. Rangers found a little girl who miraculously survived, but they could find nothing else...

● And 45 people are thought to have drowned after a boat carrying Sri Lankan refugees capsized off the coast of India.

LIBERALS — HEIRS OF LENIN
The term politically correct was first coined by Lenin in one of his typically murderous purges in 1920. The food confiscations of the '20s and which caused the deaths of 20 million people not unnaturally provoked widespread protest. Lenin suppressed this and instructed the judiciary to provide "principled and politically correct essence and justification of terror." Liberals — heirs to a murdering beast.

AIDS
31 million people world wide now have HIV/AIDS and 2 million died last year. Nine-tenths of all AIDS victims lives in the third world and 16,000 per day are being infected. In sub-Saharan Africa there are 3½ million new cases per year. In Zimbabwe, one-quarter of the population is infected. In India, a country with a negligible problem several years ago, four million are infected and in the USA, since 1994 60% of all infections occur in the black community.

● The inevitable has happened and a strain of AIDS has appeared that is resistant to the protease inhibiters, the cornerstone of HIV therapy. It's not a surprise since viruses are well known to mutate and is the reason for the continuance of the common cold.

● New Zealand is to deport a Kenyan musician after deliberately infecting several women. His appeal against deportation was rejected.

BLAIR'S HOMO LET DOWN
Only one in four support Blair's crusade to lower the age of homosexual consent to 16

● In Afghanistan, three homosexuals have been found guilty of sodomy and sentenced to stoning. Stoning, however, has been brought up to date since biblical times and a T-54 tank was pressed into service to collapse a wall onto the condemned men.

Letters

Write to: The Editor, British Nationalist, PO Box 117, Welling, Kent DA16 3DW.

Sir,
Reading British Nationalist and Spearhead over the last few months has given me and my husband great pleasure. There seems to be a sense of an upbeat mood within the BNP which bodes well.

British Nationalist informs us that new party units are being formed across the United Kingdom and each issue of Spearhead seems to have yet more writers. Keep up the good work, we will get there.
Mrs. Jean Read, Birmingham.

Sir,
I have just watched East on BBC2 which showed an Old people's Home in Rochdale called 'Ashiani' which caters for Asians only. Is this the form of overt racism that left wingers are always talking about?
Keith Davall, Staffs.

Sir,
I work sub-contracting on the oil rigs and would like to inform your readers of the massive patriotic feeling that exists on the rigs. It is far greater than you might realise, and if I had £1 for every time someone had said "Enoch was right"... This underlying sense of patriotism must be made to work for us. If we can point out the difference between racism and nationalism, we will be on a winner. To illustrate the last point. I am a nationalist, but I have nothing at all against Indians or anyone else. Best of luck to them — in their own country.

If we can put across these sensible points of view over to people and show that nationalism is a valid view point then we could look forward to a massive increase in our political fortunes.
Paul Hutchinson, The North Sea.

Sir,
I'm a New Zealander of several generations. Upon coming to London, I was told by a black to go back where I came from. When I retorted in kind, saying that this is a white country, I was screamed at that I was racist! Unfortunately, today's Britain is riddled with double standards, reinforced by trigger responses worthy of the communist Pavlov.
Joan Robinson, London.

Sir,
I strongly feel that my article in last month's BN 'Butlins meets Bosnia', which referred to our recent visit to Drumcree was edited beyond all recognition.

Firstly, I make a point of never referring to Ulster as Northern Ireland: A small but very important point.

The reference concerning the sectarian violence and ethnic cleansing really got by blood boiling. The paragraphs added after I submitted my article, seemed almost to justify Protestants carrying out violent attacks on Catholics. It gave the totally false impression that Loyalists will burn out Catholic families from their homes in order to maintain Protestant numbers and thereby deny Sinn Fein/IRA a base.

As correctly stated in January's edition of BN, 30 per cent of Catholics are pro-Unionist, and that figure is actually growing.

We in the BNP, must keep reminding our supporters that we are the only true unionist party. We have many Catholic members, some of whom live in the Republic as well as elsewhere in the UK.
Colin Smith, Kent.

Sir,
I would argue that the outcome of the Peterborough poll result covered in last month's BN and where 66% of respondents said 'yes' to the BNP meant exactly that and not merely that they agreed with the party being entitled to set up shop so to speak.

My own experience with the many people I talk to every day is that more than 90% of people agree with over 90% of BNP policy. My letter outlining this observation was printed in Peterborough's Herald & Post (23/7/98) and has not been contradicted.
N. Brymore, Peterborough.

E. MIDS BNP GRAB THE HEADLINES!

East Midlands BNP, not to be outdone by their W. Mids. colleagues (see p8.). have been hitting the headlines themselves. The latest dollop of excellent publicity featured the party in the Newark Advertiser in connection with organising possible crime prevention patrols as has been done before by other units of the party at different times.

Predictably, the move has caused an over-reaction which has undoubtedly benefitted the party in terms of publicity.

But it isn't only the Newark Advertiser which has covered E. Mids. BNP in recent weeks. In Rutland and Peterborough, the BNP has made itself the front page centre of attention with regard to focussing on anti-white MP for Peterborough, Helen Brinton and Pro-pervert MP for Rutland & Melton, Alan Duncan.

BRINTON: Won't live next door to Peterborough Muslims

Brinton, who lives in leafy rural Kent but who has no intention of going to live in Peterborough has been quoted in Tribune, the paper of the Labour left, as saying: "Peterborough is a delightfully multi-racial constituency. There a lot of Muslim, mainly Kurdish people, Kashmiri people, Sikhs, Afro-Caribbeans and a large community of Polish and other East Europeans." BN asks again: Why is it that Brinton has refused point blank to even consider moving to Peterborough? Could the answer be that she's a hypocrite, promoting multi-racialism but not wanting to live the 'ideal' herself? Or could it be that Brinton is actually a racist? Just what has Brinton got against Muslim Kurds, Kashmiris, Sikhs, Afro-Caribbeans as well as Poles and other East Europeans?

And in Rutland, covering the village of Wing which was going to be used to house child molesters, Alan Duncan the local MP called the local protest group protesting the move as 'a shambles', giving every indication of supporting the sex perverts against the people. While Duncan's motivations can only be a matter for speculation, enquiries by BN reveal that Duncan's lack of concern for family values may have something to do with the fact that he is himself a confirmed batchelor. Duncan was also one of the MPs to vote for the reduction of the age of homosexual consent. Suddenly, all becomes clearer!

Plans for ballot box and street campaigns

NATIONAL PARTY TARGETS TOWN

by DANIEL CHURCHER

THE British National Party is planning to hold a members' meeting in Newark to discuss a strategy to fight crime, which could involve vigilante-style groups patrolling the streets.

The extreme right-wing political party, which claims to have strong support in the Newark, has criticised the way the town is policed, particularly on housing estates like Yorke Drive.

The BNP claims to have a growing membership in Newark and out-lying districts and says it is keen to become involved in community politics.

BNP regional organiser Mr John Peacock, of Loughborough, says the party may consider nominating a candidate to stand in the district council elections in May.

This was confirmed by the BNP's county spokesman, Mr Phil Edwards, of Nottingham, who said: "We have a candidate in mind but I am not yet authorised to name him."

'INTIMIDATION'

Mr Peacock said: "I have had five letters from people in Newark who are unhappy with the way the town is going and have asked us to get involved.

"The letters talk of harassment and intimidation from youths, not just on the housing estates but in the town centre as well.

"It is up to our Newark members as to the course of action we take but if we are asked to approach these youths and drug pushers in the street and have words with them, then that is what we will do.

"We are prepared to do whatever it takes — leaflet campaigns, a public demonstration and standing in council elections.

"After all, the police don't seem able to resolve the problem and seem powerless to take action at all, the court system demoralises them and government ineptitude leaves them disillusioned."

But Newark police local area commander, Inspector Steve Ward, hit back.

"I reject any suggestion that we have lost control," he said. "There is no evidence to suggest the situation is out of control.

"If support groups help us their methods must be legal and be used in controlled circumstances. I would be very concerned with vigilante-style groups patrolling the streets, as I am sure others would.

"The BNP are a legal political party but, while they seem to be offering support and assistance, if there were ever any suggestion of illegal methods being employed then that I could not condone.

"I am involved in several multi-racial groups and I would hope that the activities of this party would not do anything to de-stabilise good relationships that have been built up locally over the years."

Mr Peacock claims the BNP's support in the area stems from its local involvement at the time the Islamic Institute opened at Flintham.

The Advertiser carried reports during 1992, when the institute was nearing completion, as residents made every effort to distance themselves from the party.

Below: just one of a whole rash of letters pulished

Party doesn't exist to incite violence

Editor -Your article 'tempers flare at protest" (July 17) implied that the British National Party were a potential cause of trouble at the Wing Grange demonstration on July 16. Furthermore MP Alan Duncan continued to denigrate the BNP and said "I intend to work only with genuine local residents." Apart from the fact that we do indeed have party members living within 'danger distance' of Wing Grange, the BNP do not exist to incite violence. Because the tired old political parties now seem incapable of addressing many problems because of a combination of vested interests and political correctness - the reason the protest is getting nowhere - we adopt a fearless input into the political process which helps to get things moving. Your local politicians have successfully used a policy of 'divide and rule' against the real fears of local residents, particularly by causing the boycott of the July 16 event when BNP members could have made a significant impact through debate and support for your cause and against the Trust, via the assembled media at the event. Instead, all we have on our evening TV screens was Alan Duncan again. It is worth reiterating that Mr Duncan failed to tell Wing residents two years ago when his party was in power, that their new policy was to house serious sex offenders at Wing Grange.

BUDDEN SPEAKS IN WOKING!

Woking & District BNP held an extremely succesful meeting at the end of July, just too late to make it in last month's British Nationalist. BN columnist Ted Budden was the guest speaker who said that the BNP had to demonstrate its total and complete opposition to the Euro sell out now being planned by the Tory and Labour parties. Party managers are simply concerned with how to 'sell' the move to the British public. Ted's dry wit and long involvement in nationalism provided a fascinating evening for the assembled thirty or so supporters who went along to hear him, and it inspired all to dig deep for the party's Euro Election fund as the collection at the end of the meeting raised an excellent £300.

BNP GEORDIE POWER!

Tyne & Wear BNP had a busy month last month doing the low-key but essential work the party needs to do to progress and develop — leafleting. Nothing spectacular about that you might think, but this single very new group of the party in the first three weeks of last month alone leafleted 12,000 homes. Yes, you read that right — twelve-thousand leaflets into 12,000 homes! Another 20,000 leaflets have been rushed up to what seems like the party's most energetic group which should keep them going... for about five weeks!

While activists in the North East have been quietly getting on with the work, unspectacular though it is. The rewards have been quick to come with Tyne & Wear BNP receiving an increasing share of enquiries from the leaflets going out and this includes an unusually high percentage of single women!

One of the biggest steps forward for Tyne & Wear BNP in the last few months has been the activation of a number of patriots formerly belonging to the National Front, but now working hard for the BNP. The increase in activity and the recruitment of more members in the region mean that while contesting the North East region in the Euro-Elections is unlikely (unless a few keen Geordies can be found to stump up £9,000 between them), what is more certain is that next year, the North East will see the first BNP election candidates at local level ever.

WEST MIDS. DAY OF ACTION!

Nineteen activists attended a Day of Action in response to racially motivated attempted murders by Asian gangs in the Tipton area last month. BNP members were well received by local residents who could not hide their delight and surprise from the show of strength by party activists on the streets. No one was more surprised than the local Muslim councillor, who stopped his car in amazement at the sight of the Union flag fluttering in the breeze before him.

More than 1,000 leaflets were distributed, followed by a lunchtime drink in the main Tipton public house where BNP ladies and gentlemen were welcomed by pub regulars and thanked for their support. A dozen copies of BN were sold and one man joined on the spot!

West Midlands Election Officer, Steve Edwards organised the event and said: "We now have at our disposal instant response groups, where within a matter of days, we can produce a leaflet on a 'hot' local issue and supply a team of activists to distribute them." He added: "Although it is important that other branches are not distracted from carrying out weekly community leafleting, it is also vital that we can respond immediately to any important event for the BNP in the Midlands."

BNP FOOTBALL TOURNY

Saturday July 18th saw a very competitive 5-aside competition in the East Midlands.

Even though Nottingham and Leicestershire won their respective groups without losing a single game, Edinburgh ended up lifting the trophy.

Changing the rules half way through, Nottingham and Leicester team captains decided instead of playing each other in the final, to play the runners-up in each other's group. So it was that Nottingham played Todmorden and Leicester played Edinburgh.

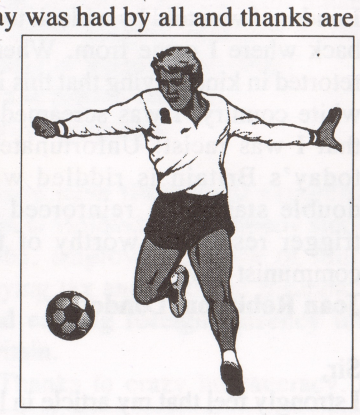

Sneaky Todmorden defended throughout waiting for a penalty shoot out which they won, putting them through to the final.

In the other semi-final, the game resembled a rugby match which Edinburgh won 2-1.

The final, between Todmorden and Edinburgh saw the Lancashire men going for their third consecutive win in three years. But this time it was not to be, for all the brilliance of Tod goalie Phil (the cat) and fantastic acting by Chris ("Oi, Ref I'm injured" and "Refereeee, did you see that?") Jackson. The determination of the team from Edinburgh led by Warren Bennett beat Todmorden 2-1.

An enjoyable day was had by all and thanks are due to the staff at the football ground. Mentions too for the mixed Notts. team who never gave up and to Edinburgh for putting a brave face on their initial 4-0 thrashing by Nottingham.

Finally, well done to Edinburgh for lifting the trophy.

COMMUNITY POLITICS — THE WAY FORWARD

Bradford & Keighley BNP have designed and distributed one of the most original and imaginative leaflets ever produced by the party and in doing so have learnt a valuable lesson.

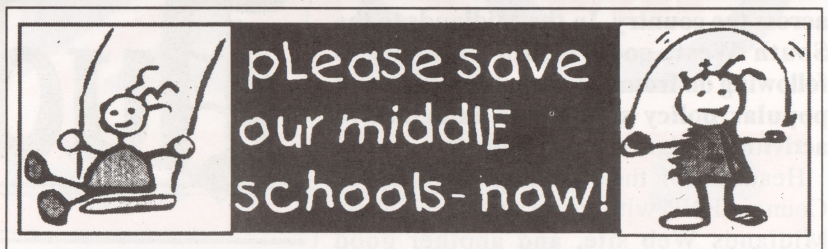

The number of people coming out of their houses and thanking party activists for their support was a real surprise. Getting involved with the local community and campaigning for the retention of Bradford's Middle Schools, which are a half-way house between junior and senior schools, has proved to be very good for the party.

Following on from this accidental meeting the people exercise, it became apparent that many people who had previously received a (different) leaflet, while they didn't write back to the party to find out more or express their support, did agree with what the party had to say. "Everyone around here agrees with it," was the sweeping quote from one man. But this proved a complete revelation to Bradford activists who had no outward sign of this. Which proves once again, the value of meeting the people and talking to them — canvassing them. Canvassing gives party activists a chance to find out what our people are thinking and what the real issues are.

Ten-thousand of these leaflets have now been distributed and the exercise has done the BNP a lot of good.

The innovation and imagination now being exhibited all over the country on all kinds of issues shows that the BNP is exhibiting a dynamic tendancy to get involved with our people at all levels, and this can only be to the good.

Four more excellent leaflets have appeared this month (see page 6). The party's Anti-EU leaflet, called 'Save Our Stirling'. A two-sided, 2-colour leaflet that will be sure to prove popular. ALL BNP GROUPS AND BRANCHES are urged to purchase THOUSANDS of these NOW. These leaflets should be distributed along with whatever other leaflet is being distributed in 'double drops'. There isn't enough time or enough manpower for the party to cover the same ground twice. So all units when out leafleting should be dropping the anti-EU 'SOS' leaflet in addition to whatever else is being distributed. Whether that's 'Stop Labour's Attacks on the Welfare State', 'Stop the Race Attacks' or any of the following 2-side, 2-colour new leaflets: 'Stop the Building' details the BNP's opposition to further building on green belt land and exposes the lie of the need for 5 million new homes; 'Conservative? Not Any More' savages the Tories; while 'Out of Work? On your Bike!' slams the free trade nature of all the establishment parties, especially Labour; Lastly, 'Do You Think?' is aimed at breaking down unthinking voter loyalties.

The imaginative Bradford BNP community leaflet

WEST COUNTRY BNP IN COOKE PROTEST

In Taunton, Somerset BNP members leafleted a demonstration against child sex monster, Sidney Cooke who is rumoured to be in somewhere in Taunton, possibly Taunton's main police station. 200 people turned out to voice their opposition to having that monster let loose in their town and quite right too. BNP members were extremely well received with their hang Child Murderer leaflets as it is only the BNP that is in touch with ordinary people on this issue. The Somerset County Gazette reported in an article 'Demo lures right wing extremists' saying that the party's efforts to get involved at community level in Taunton was 'sinister'. Perhaps this was because of something further on when it reported that a car load of men with suits and dark glasses, wired up with walkie talkies were seen arriving at the demo start point. BN has this piece of news for the Gazette: Congratulations. You pass the test for spotting Britain's political police, the notorious Special Branch! BNP members on the other hand were, like everyone else on the demo, dressed in summer wear namely T-shirts and shorts and were recogniseable by having bundles of leaflets!

This small leafleting exercise — given that the demo attracted just 200 — was highly successful with the party featured on TV and radio news. One girl was shown shouting at police: "It's the summer holidays, but do you see any children coming out on the streets?" Regional Organiser, Bruce Cowd was quoted in the Gazette as saying that BNP members leafleted the demo for just 20 minutes before leafleting nearby houses.

W. MIDS BNP GRAB THE HEADLINES!

THE LAST MONTH has seen the BNP storm into headlines at local level right across the country. In the Midlands to the South West, good media publicity is following on from the party's sensible and popular policy stance and imaginative activities designed to promote it.

Headline of the month goes to Black Country BNP with coverage of the West Midlands Web site, and another good headline was also had by West Midlands BNP with the optimistic headline: 'BNP set for Town Office' following some activity in Redditch.

In the first story, the Dudley Chronicle's local reporter Mark Andrews noticed during the David Shaylor controversy that Shaylor's Internet site was based in Tonga giving his Web site address the suffix 'to'. Realising the BNP's West Midland's site used the same suffix he got in touch asking if it was so as to skirt around the country's notoriously repressive Race Act. This led to the story right.

Simon Darby did not, however, say that Tonga was in Africa (it is, in fact, in the Pacific Ocean).

In a separate story entirely, West Midlands BNP have taken up the cause of local people fighting a new Mosque proposal in Redditch. The headline from that was a highly satisfactory 'BNP set for town office' and is the result of more than a dozen enquiries into the party following the Mosque proposal and the realisation that the party could, in short order, form a group in the area possibly leading to standing for election in next year's council elections.

The coverage of the two papers is some 85,000 between them.

B.B.C. CENSORSHIP

The amazing follow on from this story is that BBC Midlands contacted the BNP's Simon Darby for an interview. It was proposed that BBC Radio West Midlands and Midlands Today — a BBC evening TV news programme — would run the story. In the event, London BBC headquarters refused BBC Midlands to conduct any interview whatsoever! Proof positive that Stalin is alive and well and living in the Shepherds Bush BBC studios.

Midlands BBC, unable to do its job properly was compelled to cover the story without any BNP input at all — something that doesn't even happen to the terrorist criminals like the IRA, never mind a lawfully constituted political party committed to democratic process like the BNP. Just another insight into Britain's 'democracy'!

The drip drip drip of positive image projection over the past 4-5 years is finally starting to pay off. The BNP is still controversial, but no longer demonised

RACE PARTY ON THE INTERNET

THE BLACK Country branch of the controversial British National Party has launched an Internet site — and registered it in Tonga to avoid censorship by the British authorities.

Chairman of Dudley Racial Equality Council Khurshid Ahmed called for tighter legislation of the worldwide Internet computer network to close such loopholes in the law.

The Black Country branch of the BNP, which covers the Sandwell and Dudley areas, said the website would be used to galvanise support and co-ordinate activities throughout the region.

Party spokesman Simon Darby, who contested the Dudley North seat for right-wing National Democrats at last year's General Election, said the website had been registered in the African country of Tonga because of fears its content might be censored.

"We registered it in Tonga because the Government and one or two teaching unions were making noises about people who don't go along with multi-racial propaganda," he said.

Mr Darby said he feared there was a risk the Government may introduce new censorship legislation regarding the Internet in future, and said having the site registered abroad was a "precaution."

"I know for a fact that it is causing waves in that we're saying various things on the net that the powers-that-be don't want people to hear," he said.

"Most of the service providers are as good as gold in that, as far as political censorship is concerned, they're not interested.

"But with this Labour Government it is the kind of thing that may happen — providers may be leaned on."

The site will also be exempt from UK race relations laws, although Mr Darby said there would be no deliberate attempt to exploit this loophole.

But he added: "It's very easy to fall foul of race relations laws in this country — telling the truth is no defence in law."

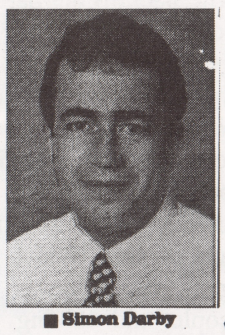

Khurshid Ahmed said he believed it was necessary for Governments across the world to work together to stop racists finding ways of spreading propaganda.

"They would go to any lengths to get their message of hate across," he said.

"The Internet is a relatively new phenomenon As we get experience of its abuse, we will learn to tackle it.

"I think there needs to be a concerted global response to something like this.

"It's worrying that the could still spread their message, but I don't think it will find many supporters."

BNP set for town office

THE right wing British National Party could set up a Redditch branch and contest next year's local elections.

BNP members have been distributing thousands of leaflets around Smallwood following controversial plans for a 2,000-seater mosque in the town.

Peaceful

He added: "We don't want to cause any trouble, we want a peaceful political issue."

Fakral Hussain, secretary of the project to build the mosque said: "It seems as though they are putting a political front on it. It is their prerogative. Likewise it is our prerogative to apply for a place of worship.

"Why would they have a cause to object. It is not a political movement, all somebody is asking for is a place of worship."

And again in Redditch. More good publicity

ANOTHER NEW UNIT FORMED!

North West London BNP has been active for a while already, but is officially announced as of this month. Leafleting has been carried out in a number of areas giving the new group a flying start.

North West London extends from the north circular out to the M25 and from the M4 to the M1.

What we stand for

- The establishment of a government of national unity that will put an end to nationally divisive party warfare; the return of leadership and statesmanship to British affairs.
- An end to immigration and a start to repatriation.
- British withdrawal from the European Union: trade with Europe where it suits us but no political ties, and no monetary union.
- The disbanding of the multi-racial Commonwealth and its replacement by a new Commonwealth of self-governing white states.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources.
- Protection of British industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market.
- An end to the financial swindle that causes inflation and slump, and its replacement by a sane and fair financial system that will give the people the purchasing power to buy the goods they produce.
- The subordination of the power of the City to the power of Government, and the harnessing of the City to the needs of British industry.
- The regeneration of British farming, with the object of achieving the maximum self-sufficiency in food; also the restoration of the fishing industry by protection of our traditional fishing grounds.
- A healthy environment for a healthy people — the protection of our countryside and an end to the architectural disfigurement of our towns and cities.
- Tougher treatment of criminals, including the return of the death penalty.
- A return to traditional methods of education, with stronger discipline in the classroom and the sacking of 'trendy' teachers.
- An alternative defence strategy: withdrawal from NATO; closure of all foreign military and air bases in Britain; British withdrawal from the war in former Yugoslavia, where no British interest is at stake; the bringing home of British forces from Germany; the strengthening of Britain's defences and a position of armed neutrality.
- An end to overseas aid and the allocation of the money saved to the financing of repatriation and greater help for the needy at home.
- The crushing of the IRA, the termination of the Anglo-Irish agreement and firm support for the loyalist majority in Northern Ireland.
- A return to healthy moral values aimed at strengthening the family and community.

Euro '99 Fund

Target £50,000 Total so far £14,614

The BNP's £50,000 appeal to fight the European elections next year is lagging slightly behind schedule. A TV broadcast and delivery of the party's election address to 16 million voters is riding on the ability of the party to raise the cash. But to do that, the fund has to raise £1,000 per week. But for that to happen, you need to give, to give generously, to give often and to give now. The BNP is not funded by heroin crime bosses like the Tories or millionaire perverts like the Labour party. The BNP is your party, the party of the ordinary decent British. It's up to you! The total raised last month was £1,070 bringing the total from individuals to £7,324. BN would like to thank all those that dug deep. Those that didn't have got to do better this month. The enemies of Britain are only too ready to put their money where their mouths are. What about you? If the party's ambitious target is to be reached, everyone must examine their conscience and their wallet — it's time to give now! Returns by Organisers this month show an increase of £1,021 (£400 of this comes from Wales and £350 from Somerset) bringing the regional/branch total up to £7,290. This makes a grand total of £14,614.
